

HOW YOUR FINANCIAL DONATION TO PALS IS USED

As a 501(c)(3) not for profit support group, PALS officers strive to provide a forum and supportive environment for parents, guardians, and caregivers at the lowest possible expense. No part of the net earnings of PALS inure to the benefit of, or are distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to make payments, and distributions to further the purpose of PALS.

PALS currently hosts informative meetings at least eighth times a year. We host these meetings at venues that either donate the space for free or require a nominal fee. During these meetings we provide copies of articles, meeting flyers, and other materials participants find helpful. We also maintain a useful website, providing our meeting minutes, valuable news articles, and information regarding local and national resources. We recently began hosting virtual meetings using Zoom.

PALS - Parent Advocates for Learning Support

Your local advocacy group for children who have different learning styles.

Founded in Fox Chapel - Serving the Pittsburgh Area

PALS mission is to support and educate parents, guardians, and caregivers, giving them the tools to help their children succeed in the classroom. It is our goal that parents, guardians, caregivers, teachers, and school administrators work together to give children with learning differences the best possible opportunities for success in school and in life.
